Attention Militia!

We have for sale a few copies of the new Militia Law of this State in pamphlet form—price 25 cents per copy, free of postage.

Appointment by the Governor.

The Governor has appointed SIMON B. BUCKNER, of Louisville, Inspector General of the State Militia, under the new law approved on the 5th inst. The Inspector General ranks as a Major General and exercises under the Commander-in-Chief the active control and command of the Volunteer Millitia.

General Buckner is an accomplished gentleman and thoroughly trained military officer. He has lately given considerable attention to the subject of an effective organization of the militia and was the author and draughtsman of the bill, which, without any amendment whatever, was enacted into the law under which he holds his commission. Of course he is perfectly familiar with the detail of all the duties pertaining to his office and Gov. Magoffin could not have made a more suitable appointment. We congratulate him upon his promotion to a post he is so well qualified to fill, and have every assurance that he will so organize the militia of this State as to render it respectable in times of peace and formidable in war.

Lyon Circuit Court.

We understand that an impression prevails in Lyon and other counties in the 1st, 2d, and 14th Judicial Districts, that the laws passed by the last session of the Legislature, creating the 14th district, and regulating the time of holding courts in 1st and 2d Districts, leave Lyon county without any provision for Circuit Court terms. Numerous letters have been forwarded to Frankfort, making inquiry upon this subject. To answer these inquiries, we will say that act No. 291, approved February 17th, 1860, creates the 14th Judicial District, and abolishes the Equity and Criminal Court in Lyon and other counties. Act 292, approved February 18th, 1860, regulates the time of holding courts in the 1st District, abolishes the Equity and Criminal Court for Lyon county, transfers the papers of said court to the Lyon Circuit Court, and strikes said county from the 1st Judicial District. This act fails to attach Lyon county to any District. But act No. 917, approved March 1, 1860, provides as to the county of Lyon, "that the county of Lyon be, and is hereby, added to the 2d Judicial District, and the Circuit Courts in said county shall hereafter commence on the fourth Monday in June and second Monday in December, and continue twelve juridical days, if the business of the court require it."

It will be thus seen that the impression to which we have alluded is erroneous.

We have only given such parts of the acts referred to as pertain to the courts in Lyon county.

☞ The subjoined hand-bill, sent to us from Buchanan, Benien county, Michigan, will show the whereabouts of a scamp who may be known to some of our readers, and shows to what depths of degradation Black Republicanism can hurry its votaries :

Let the North Awake.

T. B. M'Cormick will discuss the immorality, illegality, and unconstitutionality of American Slavery, and the duty and power of the general government to abolish it, on Friday evening, March 16th, at 7 o'clock, in the Christian church.

Mr. M'Cormick, formerly of Kentucky, is the clergyman for whom the Governor of Kentucky made a requisition upon the Governor of Indiana, charging him with aiding in the escape of fugitive slaves. The warrant was issued, and Mr. M'Cormick is thereby exiled from home. All are respectfully invited to attend. The greatest man since Tom Jefferson.

☞ The Democracy of Marshall county indorse Gov. Magoffin's Veto of the Commercial Bank. See the proceedings of their meeting in another column.

☞ We publish elsewhere in our paper a letter from a gentleman who participated in the fight at Vera Cruz between the Saratoga and two Mexican vessels.

☞ Keenon & Crutcher have all the new styles of hats. We are indebted to this firm for a copy of Harpers' monthly for April.

☞ The Louisville Courier has donned a new and elegant typographical dress. It is also considerably enlarged. We congratulate it upon this evidence of its prosperity.

THE OWENSBORO CONFLAGRATION.—The fire in Owensboro Tuesday, burnt $25,000 worth of property, and the whole town for a time was in imminent danger of destruction. A warehouse of F. L. Hall, occupied by Winsted & Hicks and B. A. Wilhoyte, was burnt; J. Mitchell's store-house were also consumed. Mitchell and Hall lost each $5,000, but the latter is fully insured.

THE NAVAL ENGAGEMENT IN THE GULF. From a detailed account of this affair, published in the New Orleans Picayune, it appears by the statement of the prisoners that Miramon's vessels were fitted out in the port of Havana, with the knowledge and connivance of the Cuban authorities.

MAIL ROBBERY.—The boy mail carrier from Double Springs, in White county, to Glasgow, Ky., has been arrested for robbing the mail. The Sparta Times says :

It is not at all surprising that a thing of this kind should occur, as the mail bags sometimes have a hole in them large enough to poke an orange through. It is a strong temptation.

THE CLIMAX.—A poor fellow says: "In an evil hour I became addicted to drink. From that moment I have been going down, until I have become an outcast—a loafer—a thing of no account; fit for nothing else but a member of Congress."

Death of Hon Ben Monroe.

It is with unfeigned sorrow that we record the death of Hon. Ben Monroe, of this city. He died on Saturday last, and was buried yesterday. The deceased was one of the most honored and useful members of this community. He had held the position of Circuit Judge prior to his removal from Columbia to Frankfort, and while a citizen of this place was Reporter of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals for eighteen years, and a leading practitioner in his profession. He was an elder in the Presbyterian Church, and stood high in the Masonic fraternity. In all the relations of life, public and private, he was esteemed one of the purest and best of men, and now that he is gathered to his fathers, ripe in years and honors, he leaves a large circle of friends—we might add a whole community to regret his loss. We trust that some friend better acquainted with his early history will supply an extended notice of his long and useful life. We subjoin the resolutions adopted by the Bar and officers of the Franklin Circuit Court in testimony of his worth:

At a meeting of the members of the Bar, and the officers of the Franklin Circuit Court, held at the Circuit Clerk's office, on the 21th inst., Hon. James Harlan was elected Chairman, and Philip Swigert, Secretary.

A committee, consisting of Thos. N. Lindsey, James P. Metcalfe, and Jno. M. Harlan, was appointed to prepare and report resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting in regard to the lamented death of Hon. Ben Monroe.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the Bar, and the officers of the Franklin Circuit Court, have received, with the deepest sorrow, the intelligence of the death of Hon. Benjamin Monroe.

Resolved, That we will cherish an affectionate remembrance of the many virtues which distinguished both his private and public career, and which rendered him universally beloved and respected; whether on the Bench, in the prosecution of his profession, in his intercourse with his fellow men, in the midst of his family, or as a member and officer of the Christian denomination, he endeavored to discharge his duties with that scrupulous fidelity and zeal which mark the truly conscientious and upright man.

Resolved, That as a testimony of our respect and affection for the memory of the deceased, we will attend his funeral at the time appointed for that purpose.

Resolved, That the Chairman and Secretary of this meeting transmit to the family of the deceased a copy of these proceedings, and assure them of our sincere sympathy in the great loss they have sustained.

Resolved, That the Secretary furnish a copy of the proceedings of this meeting for publication in the city papers.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting present these resolutions to the various courts of record held in the city of Frankfort, at their next terms, and request that they be entered on record.

JAMES HARLAN Chairman.

The Capture of the Mexican Vessels at Vera Cruz—An Interesting Letter.

U. S. SLOOP SARATOGA, OFF VERA CRUZ,
March 9th, 1860.

MY DEAR BROTHER :—The weather not permitting the steamer to leave for New Orleans as soon as was expected, when I closed B.'s letter, I embrace the opportunity of writing you a few lines by the same vessel.

In my letter to B. I mentioned that we had a very lively little encounter with two steamers which we took. The papers in the United States will soon be full of the affair, and as it was one of a very delicate nature, I will state the facts of the case as they occurred, and allow you to make the editors of the papers in our town acquainted with them, in order that they may give a correct version to the people.

On the 6th inst., two steamers made their appearance off the harbor of Vera Cruz, and although they passed within three miles of the Castle, they showed no colors. This is very unusual, and more remarkable in this case, because the Castle fired a gun and displayed the Mexican colors, to attract their attention. The actions of the strangers being very suspicious, this ship, together with two small chartered steamers, the "Indianola" and the "Wave," were sent to Anton Lizardo, about twelve miles southard of Vera Cruz, to watch their movements. As we approached the anchorage of the steamers, one of them a tempted to leave through the southern passage. Our ship then fired a gun across her bows, not at her, to bring her to, this being the usual way of notifying a suspected vessel that a man-of-war wishes to speak her; she should have hove to immediately, and showed her colors; she did neither, but continued her flight; then the "Indianola" and "Wave" were sent in chase. As the former approached her, he hailed her several times, ordering her to let go an anchor. The reply was a broadside gun, and a volley of musketry, which wounded one of our men. The first shot having been fired by them, there can be no blame attached to us for our course, which was to open fire upon them and continue it until they surrendered. The steamer at anchor, being under our broadside, made very little resistance; but the running one fought as long as there was any hope of escaping, which was about twenty minutes or half an hour. The steamers proved to be the "General Miramon" and the "Marquasa do Habana," loaded with munitions of war for the Church party of Mexico, and under the command of Admiral Marin, an officer of that party. The fact of their firing into us first is sufficient in itself to justify us in capturing them; but this is not all. Although they were commanded by a well-known traitor, now an adherent to Miramon, and although they were equipped as vessels of war, they, at least one of them, hoisted the Spanish flag, and they have papers which declare them to be legal Spanish traders, which of course are false.

The simple fact that these vessels fitted out in Havana, where no private citizen is allowed to traffic in munitions of war, shows that the Spanish government must have assisted the expedition, thereby interfering in the civil war in Mexico. This I believe will not be tolerated by our government, and the implicity of the authorities of Cuba in the affair may lead to serious results. The commanding officer here has done his duty; let us see what the people will say about it.

P.

☞ Anderson, of the Fourth District, is again meanly truckling for Abolition sympathy and support in the approaching contest for his seat. The other day, he and Green Adams alone, of all the Southern Opposition, voted with the Black Republicans to give Williamson further time to contest Sickles' seat. Williamson had no right to further time—and has no expectation of ousting Sickles, but he wants a little more per diem. The Black Republicans were willing to accommodate him, and so was Anderson. If the Blacks don't retain Anderson, they will prove themselves the basest ingrates. He has been guilty of enough toadyism to earn their support. What a burning disgrace the official trickery of Charles Morehead, James Harlan, and Mason Brown, has imposed on the freemen of the Fourth District.—Bardstown Gazette.

Maryland Democratic State Convention.

BALTIMORE, March 23.—The Fifth Congressional District of Maryland Democratic Convention has chosen Bradley J. Johnson and John J. Menson delegates to the Charleston Convention.

A permanent organization of the Maryland State Democratic Convention is being held here. Ex Governor Lowe is the Chairman, and the Vice Presidents are chosen one from each district. The committee appointed on resolutions will report this morning, after which delegates will be elected to Charleston. It is thought that delegates favoring Mr. Douglas will be chosen.

The Committee on Resolutions reported a series in substance as follows:

1. The people of Maryland, as a frontier Southern State, are most vitally interested in the protection of slave property and the faithful observance of all the guarantees of the Federal Constitution, and denounce as wicked the treasonable attempts by the Northern people to regulate or invade by discussion, agitation, or otherwise, the domestic institutions of any State or Territory.

2. That we pledge ourselves to unite with our Southern brethern in asserting and maintaining our constitutional rights at every hazard and to the last extremity.

3. That we do faithfully adhere to the political principles of the National Convention of 1856 as the true Democratic creed.

4. That we stand upon the policy of non-intervention by Congress with the institution of slavery in the territories, as approved by the convention of 1856, and that we declare it to be our opinion that neither Congress nor the people of a Territory, organized or unorganized, directly or indirectly, can interfere with the institution of slavery or rights of holding slaves. We hereby declare that such right is more properly referable to judicial instruction, and that the Supreme Court, upon such questions, is final and binding upon each member of the Democratic party, and will more certainly conduce to the public peace than any other form of legislative intervention.

5. That perfect freedom of opinion on all questions ought to be enjoyed by every member of the party, and all differences tolerated until the Democratic Convention, or the Supreme Court, or the States shall settle the issue, when it becomes an imperative duty to yield unqualified adhesion.

6. That we approve of the general policy of the present National Administration.

7. That we will give our support to the nominee of the Charleston Convention.

All the resolutions were unanimously adopted. Several addresses, counseling harmony and moderation, and urging the importance of contributing to the selection of such a nomination at Charleston as will insure success next fall as the only means of meeting the disastrous consequences which now threaten the Union, were made.

The convention then proceeded to elect delegates from the State at large, and the following gentlemen were chosen: Wm. T. Hamilton, Lewis Malford, and John R. Emery. The choice was made unanimous. Lewis Lowe and James L. Martin were then chosen by acclamation electors for the State at large. The delegates are unpledged but are generally considered anti-Douglas. There was much enthusiasm in the convention.

☞ In referring to the recent capture of Mexican war steamers in the Gulf of Mexico, the Washington Constitution, says:

The cause of the conflict is distinctly shown. The Miramon steamers showed no colors. When required to do so by our ships bearing the national flag, their reply was a broadside and a volley of musketry.

The refusal to show their colors when asked to do so placed them in the position of pirates, and their insolent assault on United States ships proved that such was their real character.

The outrage was promptly and gallantly avenged by Commander Turner and the force under his command by the capture of the two steamers and their insolent commander, Senor Marin; and we doubt not that the Government and people of the United States will award to our officers who thus nobly sustained the honor of our flag that meed of praise and approval to which they are so well entitled.

The following is the official dispatch to the Secretary of the Navy in regard to this affair:

VIA N. ORLEANS, S. W. Pass, March 19, 1860.

SIR: Lieut. Chapman left Vera Cruz on the eleventh 11) inst., in command of the prize steamer Marquis of Havana, as bearer of dispatches to the Department from Capt. Jarvis; but learning, on my arrivel here this morning, that he had not arrived, I deem it my duty to forward the following report to you. On the 5th inst., Gen. Miramon commenced the siege of Vera Cruz, and on the 6th Gen. Marin appeared before the city with this and another steamer, and not showing his colors, Commander Turner, in the Saratoga, with detachments from the Savannah and Preble, in steamers Indianola and Wave, was ordered to proceed to the anchorage of the steamers, off Anton Lizardo, and ascertain their character.—Upon nearing them one (1) of them was seen to be moving off, when a shot was fired ahead of her to bring her to, and the Indianola was sent to overhaul her. The hail from the Indianola was replied to by a fire from the Gen. Miramon's guns and a volley of musketry, when the Saratoga fired a broadside and the action became general, resulting in the capture of both of Marin's steamers with himself and a large number of his men on board. Capt. Jarvis ordered both prizes to this port. The Preble will be here in a few days, with Marin and most of the prisoners on board, the rest being distributed between this steamer and the Marquis of Havana. Your dispatch will reach me here. Please inform me if this reaches you.—Shall this news be made public?

Respectfully,
R. D. MINOR, Lieut. U. S. Navy,
Comd'g Prize Steamer Gen. Miramon.
Hon. I. TOUCEY, Secretary of the Navy.

Democratic Meeting.

At a meeting of the Democracy of Marshall Co., held in Benton, on Monday, the 19th day of March, 1860, being the first day of the Equity and Criminal Court for said county—on motion J. C. Gilbert, Maj. John Brian was called to the Chair, and Dr. B. Holland appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting having been explained, R. F. Stone, Moses Riley, Thomas M'Elrath, J. H. Johnson, and John Gilbert were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressing the sentiments of the people of this county on the veto message of Gov. Magoffin, whereupon the committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted :

Resolved, That we heartily indorse and approve the sentiments expressed by Gov. Magoffin in his veto message to the General Assembly of Kentucky, of the bill to increase the capital stock of the Commercial Bank of Kentucky.

Resolved, That we have no sympathy for such corporations, nor for those who advocate the same, believing that they are in direct opposition to the known and expressed will and wishes of the party to which we belong, and in opposition to the interests of the great body of the people of the State.

JOHN BRIAN, Chairman.
B. HOLLAND, Secretary.

THE MYSTERY SURROUNDING HAZLETT.—The New York Evening Post, speaking of the execution of Stevens and Hazlett, says: The body of Stevens was claimed, we are told, by his sister and a young lady to whom he had been betrothed, and his family is well-known; but it is remarkable that no one has come forward yet to claim a relationship to Hazlett. He was arrested alone, it will be remembered, after the other parties to the affair had been seized, was never recognized by any of them, and has steadily refused to confess his participation in the deed or to say who he was. The name Hazlett was undoubtedly assumed, as in his private letters to persons here he used another, and otherwise showed a disposition to conceal his connections. His body, together with that of Stevens, was brought to North Amboy, New Jersey, and there buried on Sunday, after the performance of religious ceremony.

"WOULDN'T PASS AT MUD SPRINGS."—A correspondent of the California Press, in St. Louis, relates a story of a Californian of Mud Springs, in Eldorado county. By double condensation we got the narrative down to this: The citizen of Mud Springs could find nothing sufficiently superb in St. Louis to "pass at Mud Springs," he was was saying almost constantly that everything was all very nice, but it wouldn't "pass at Mud Springs." At length he was introduced into the family of a rich merchant who had a daughter "just nineteen years old:" the young lady admired, nay, loved the Californian, and the merchant thought of instigating a marriage. He took the Californian aside and said:

"Well, sir, I am a man of business, and I judge you are. Now, sir, what do you think of my daughter?"

The interrogatory momentarily startled the gentleman from Mud Springs, but he rose above the agitation and was himself again as replied:

"Well, old man, your girl's a shorter, but I'll be darned if she'll pass at Mud Springs!"

DIED,

At the residence of her son William, in this county, on the 23d inst., Mrs. MARY GRAVES, in the 85th year of her age. She was a worthy member for many years of the Baptist Church.

Naval Fight in the Gulf—Mexican Steamers Captured—15 Men Killed and 23 Wounded—The News From Vera Cruz

[From the N. O. Picayune, Tuesday evening.]

The two steamers captured by the United State sloop-of-war Saratoga, on the Mexican coast, and brought hither as prizes, sailed from Havana on the 25th ult The Marques de la Habana is reported, by the Diario de la Marina, to have cleared as a Spanish vessel; the General Miramon as a Mexican. They both cleared as merchantmen, nor does it appear that at the time of the clearance they had materials of war on board. And this is stated to us on good authority, from Havana, to have been the fact. The guns, ammunition, stores, &c., were taken on board afterwards Of the former, each steamer had six, twelve and twenty-four pounders, or twelve in all, stowed below. As to the amount of stores and aammunition, we have only the general statement that both vessels were deeply laden.

Both the Marques de la Habana and Gen. Miramon were old Spanish mail steamers, plying on the Cuban coast. The latter was formerly known as Correo No. 2. They were both built, we believe, somewhere at the North, and one of them is said to have plied on the Sound before her purchase by the Spanish Government, but under what name it is not stated.

Of the actual nationality of the steamers we have diverse reports. That most generally received is, that before fitting out for this last expedition, they had been transferred to some agent of the Miramon Government. The purchase money, $55,000, is said even to have been transmitted through the French Consulate at Vera Cruz.

It is somewhat singular, however, if the transfer was actually made, as reported, that one of them at least should be reported cleared as a Spaniard. The Havana custom-house reports are very formal and proverbially accurate. It is also somewhat singular, if true, as reported, that both vessels carried the Spanish flag as they sailed from the port of Havana.

After they had gotten out to sea, all accounts agree that the Mexican flag was hoisted, and the guaa mounted. This is reported by the steamship Mexico, which left them at Sisal, on the 24. Com. Thomas Marin was then in command of the expedition, boarded the Mexico in that capacity, and sent back dispatches to Havaaa by her. Both vessels were then armed as war steamers.

CAPTURE OF THE STEAMERS—PATICULAAS OF THE ENGAGEMENT.

In the meantime the Constitutional Government at Vera Cruz had issued a proclamation, declaraing Marin a pirate, and authorizing whoever should encounter him or his vessels in the waters of Mexico, to capture them, as sailing piratically, in violation of the law of nations.

What day the steamers left Sisal we are not informed, but they made their appearance off Vera Cruz about noon on the 6th. They were immediately signaled from the castle as suspicious vessels, and the news circulated rapidly through the town, where it produced great excitement.

In the meantime the steamer continued under full steam rapidly to advance. They passed behind the castles of San Juan de Ulna, in the direction of Sacrificios, and finally ran into Anton Lizardo, where a flag, previously raised by Miramon, indicated the place of rendezvous. Miramon was at this time before Vera Cruz.

The steamers bore na flags whatever when they passed the castle, nor did they hoist them either then or at Sacrificios, though they were ordered so to do, first by a shot from the fortress, and afterwarks by the U. S. Sloop Savannah. On the contrary, they then passed boldly forward, casting a look of defiance upon those who presumed to question them.

The French, Spanish, and English vessels at Sacrificios did not notice the suspicious steamers, or at least did not order them to show their colors.

Capt. Jarvis, of the sloop of war Savannah, is the senior U. S officer at Vera Cruz He saw with his own eyes this contemptuous violation of the law of nations—two vessels of war armed to the teeth, passing coolly by without giving a signal or hoisting her colors when ordered so to do—and took his course decidedly.

He immediately ordered the sloop-of-war Saratoga, Capt. Turner, to go in pursuit of the steamers. The Saratoga, only carrying sail, was towed down by the steamers Indianola, of this port, and the Wave, plying on the Mexican coast.

The Marin steamers had just cast anchor, at Anton Lizardo, when the Saratoga came up with them. They still had steam up, however, and seemed to have taken a position as if to put at once to sea in case of being overhauled. The Saratoga, however, seems to have taken them unawares, though the moon was shining brightly, and at once took a position to cut off all retreat. Marin then prepared as if to give fight.

In the meantime, Capt. Turner dispatched a small boat to the steamers with a flag to demand their nationality. Marin fired upon it. The boat however, continued its course; Marin fired upon it the second time. The Saratoga then launched a broadside upon the steamer, commanded in person by Marin. This was the Gen. Miramon, and seemed best armed. She was piloted by a man named Flores, well known at Vera Cruz.

The other steamer was commanded by one Capt. Sanchez, formerly of the Mexican war steamer Democrata, which he betrayed.

One account says Marin fought like a lion, but others say that, on the opening of fire, both steamers tried to run away. They were, however, intercepted by the Indianola and the Wave.

It was, however, two or three o'clock in the morning before Marin surrendered. He was taken on board the Saratoga. Nearly all the officers and crews of both steamers were also captured, either by the Indianola or Wave, and taken up to Vera Cruz, where they were distributed between the Savannah, Saratoga, and Preble.

The number of the wounded on board the two steamers was about thirty. They were taken on board the Saratoga, and their wounds promptly dressed. Among the wounded was Capt. Flores, who has since had his arm amputated at Vera Cruz.

The number of Americans wounded was three—one mortally. We have not learned his name. He belonged to the Preble.

A few of Marin's men made good their escape to the shore, but a number of Miramon's men, who had already gone on board the steamers, were captured.

Among these last captures was Miramon's principal agent, who is said to have hid himself in an obscure corner when the firing began, but had the misfortune after all to be badly wounded.

The Gen. Miramon was very badly injured by the Saratoga's broadside, and only gotten afloat with difficulty. The Indianola also received several shots, but they did her no serious injury.

Soon as the action commenced, the two steamers hoisted the Spanish flag.

After the arrival in Vera Cruz several of the prisoners made a public statement in which they detailed the history of the whole expedition. It does not differ from the above. They all testify that the Mexican flag was not raised until after both steamers left the port of Havana.

THE ATTACK ON VERA CRUZ.

While the firiag was going on at Anton Lizardo, the enemy encamped before Vera Cruz seem to have caught the spirit and sallied out in several small parties in the direction of the town.

They had, during the whole day and evening, been riding about on the sand hills, coolly surveying the city.

About midnight they made a descent upon the first and second lines, between the railroad and Hunca, where they were received with a good cannonading, and, after about twenty minutes, retired.

They seem to have had only a few small pieces with them, nor was the number of men great. It appears to have been only a union of several small scouting parties, who caught the spirit of the cannonading in the distance, and thought they would see what they could do before the town.

ACTUAL STATE OF THINGS AT VERA CRUZ.

At last accounts Miramon was still encamped before the city, and had served upon the foreign representatives the usual notices of his intention to bombard it. Whether, however, he has now the means, since the capture of his steamers, seems a matter of doubt.

All agree, however, that up to the latest advices he still threatened the city No one, however, seems to believe he will take it. Miramon has with him a large number of very fine cavalry, which is constantly parading on the sand hills.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Post office committee of the House this morning, after a two days' argument, resolved, with but one dissenting voice, that the inland postal service of the country should be restored to its condition on the 3d of March, 1858, and instructed their chairman to prepare and report a bill for that purpose to a special meeting of that committee to-morrow.

From present indications, the Pacific Railroad committee of the House will probably reconsider at their meeting on Monday the vote in favor of one road.

The Cabinet had a protracted sitting to-day, at which the capture of the Mexican steamers and prisoners before Vera Cruz was much discussed. The President will not probably reply at once to the Senate resolution calling for information respecting the capture of the Miramon steamers, the instructions to our naval force in the Gulf, &c. Dispatches, with full information as to the occurrence, are on their way from New Orleans. The Preble will no doubt bring further authentic information.

The Representatives and Senators from Alabama, Mississippi, and South Carolina had their last conference yesterday, and decided that, in view of the two national conventions which are about to assemble, it was advisable to postpone the Atlanta Conference until after the Presidential election.

The instructions which were a few days ago given to Mr. McLane, and through him to our Naval officers, will not be communicated, because they have not been acted upon, but probably there were no instructions which could bear upon the case of the capture, because there had been no opportunity to send out any for a month past. The captures were not made under any instructions, for it could not have been anticipated.

The Senators and members, together with Gen. Forbes Britten, appeared before the House Military committee to-day, and urged with great vehemence the appropriation of a million and a quarter of dollars for the Texas mounted regiment. The committee adjourned until to-morrow, when the subject will be again renewed and some definite action will be had. The impression prevails that they will decide adversely to it, inasmuch as the President and Secretary of War have neither of them recommended it.

General Pomeroy arrived here yesterday from Atchison, Kansas, in three days, the quickest trip ever made from that Territory to this city, and was accomplished by the new line of railroad just opened between Atchison and St. Joseph, where connection is made with the Illinois roads.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The following call has been furnished here for publication to-morrow:

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The members of the Democratic National Committee are requested to meet in Washington on Thursday, April 5th, for consultation on important business. A full and prompt attendance is desired.

Signed, D E SMALLEY, Chairman,
J. R. GEORGE.
C. L. VALLANDIGHAM,
JULIUS HESSEE, Secretary.

Six or eight members of the committee are already in the city. It is understood that no change will probably be made as to the place of holding the Convention, but it was thought important that the committee should be called together to satisfy the public opinion, and in the hope that the grievances complained of at Charleston may be abated. The clamor for a change continues unabated from different sections. There is some talk among individual delegates now here of an informal call upon the several State delegates to confer at the same time with the Democratic National Committee on the above named subject.

The War in Mexico.

On looking over our files of Vera Cruz papers, we find some interesting particulars of the progress of the war, and the prospects of parties in the interior of the country.

The reported capture of Zicatecas and Aguas Calientes is confirmed. These two important cities are the capitals, respectively, of the States boaring the same name. Zicatecas was captured on the 9th of February by the Liberal forces, under Gonzalez Ortega. There was no resistance, the Centralists under Silverio Ramirez, having evacuated the place without firing a shot. Ramirez fled precipitately towards San Luis Potosi, pursued by Ortega. On the 13th there was a slight encounter of outposts at Salinas. Ramirez's forces were much reduced by desertion, entire detachments, with their officers, having abandoned him.

Ortega, despairing of overtaking Ramirez, abandoned the pursuit, and turned southward, in the direction of Aguas Calientes, which city he entered on the 15th, taking possession in the name of the Constitutional Government. He immediately installed the Legislature of the State. On the 18th, Ortega again took up his march for Zacatecas, whence he would proceed to assist Garza and Hinojosa in their operations against San Luis. At last dates Garza was at Tula, waiting for reinforcements from Zacatecas or New Leon.

Jose Vazquez Prada, Nicanor Aroztegui, and Carlos del Huyo, have been imprisoned at Zacatecas, for having given aid to the Reactionary party. Senor Aroztegui, who had protested against the McLane treaty, has been removed from the office of Superintendent of the Mint at Zacatecas

On the 8th of February, 550 cavalry, said to have been well mounted and perfectly armed and disciplined, and commanded by the Spaniard Florentino Lopez, were completely routed by the Liberalists under Pedro Hinojosa, near San Juan de Vanegas.

Another party of 800 Reactionaists, which had sallied out from San Luis, under Calvo, was also attacked and routed.

Zuazua was marching southward from Monterey, with 2,000 men and two batteries of artillery.

The city of Duraago had fallen into the hands of a band of robbers and malefactors—so they are called by the Liberalists—commanded by a man named Cajen, and acting in the interest of the Church party.

The Liberalists, at last accounts, were still besieging Villa Juarez, in Oajaca.—New Orleans Picayune.

Still Later from Vera Cruz.

NEW ORLEANS, March 24.—The schooner Virginia Antoinette has arrived below with Vera Cruz advices to the evening of the 15th inst., one day later.

The military conference, which was mentioned by the last arrival as having met, amounted to nothing. The bombardment was recommenced by Miramon on the morning of the 15th, with redoubled energy, and the shot and shells were taking effect in the city, killing several of the inhabitants and soldiers, and doing much damage to property. Many of the shot fell among the shipping under the castle of San Juan D'Ulloa, without doing any great damage.

Two Spanish war steamers arrived off Vera Cruz on the 15th, the day the Virginia Antoinette sailed.

Mutiny at Sea.

BOSTON, March 21.—The ship Norway, of New York, when five days out on the passage from Macao for Havana, with one thousand coolies, was the scene of a terrible mutiny, in which thirty coolies were killed and ninety wounded. The fight lasted from 6 o'clock, P. M., till daylight next morning, when the coolies yielded. Capt. Major had his wife and two daughters, also a lady passenger and child, on board. The lady passenger died from fright, and her child expired soon afterward.

A NOTED DAY.—The twenty-third of April has been fixed upon for the assemblage of the National Democratic Convention in Charleston. It is the date on which Brazil was discovered, Warren Hastings was acquitted, the battle Ratisbon was fought between the Americans and the French, the charter of Connecticut was granted by Charles II, the first number of the Tattler was published by Steele, Addison & Swift It is also the anniversary of the death of Cervantes, Baxter, Tickell, Wordsworth, and Shakspeare.

"PENCILINGS BY THE WAY."—The New York Ledger, through Fanny Fern, has some sharp hints for its lady readers. According to Fanny—

"There are two things a woman can't do. 1st. She can't sharpen a lead pencil. Give her one and see. Mark how guedly she hacks away every particle of wood from the lead, leaving an unsupported spike of the latter, which breaks immediately you try to use it. You can almost forgive the male creature his compassionate contempt, as chucking her under the chin, he twitches it from her awkward little paw, and rounds and tapers it off in the most ravishing manner for durable use.

* * * * * * * *

I wish to hear no argument on that point, because when I once make up my mind, "all the king's men" can't change it. Well then—Secondly: A woman can't do up a bundle. She takes a whole newspaper to wrap up a paper of pins, and a coil of rope to tie it, and it comes undone at that. When I go shopping—which it is sometimes my hard lot to do—I look on with the lascinated gaze of a bird in the neighborhood of a magnetic serpent, to watch clerks do up bundles How the paper falls into just the right creases; how deftly they turn it over, and tuck it under, and tie it up, and then throw it down on the counter, as if they had done the most common-place thing in the world, instead of a deed which might—and faith—does! task the ingenuity of "angels!" It is perfectly astonishing.

Thirdly—I might allude to the fact that women cannot carry an umbrella; or rather to the very peculiar manner in which they perform that duty; but I won't. I scorn to turn traitor to a sex who, whatever may be their faults, are always loyal to each other. So I shall not say, as I might otherwise have said, that when they unfurl the parachute alluded to, they put it right down over their noses, take the middle of the sidewalk, taking off men's hats and women's bonnets, as they go, and walking right into the breakfast of some unfortunate wight, with that total disregard of the consequent gasp, which, to be understood, must be felt, as the offender rocks up one corner of the parachute, and looks defiantly for the victim who has had the effrontery to come into the world and hazard the whalebone and handle of her "umberille!" No; I won't speak of anything of the kind; besides, has not a celebrated writer remarked, that when dear "women is cross, it is only because she is sick." Let us hope he is right We all know that is not the cause of a MAN'S crossness. Give him his favorite dish, and you may dine off him afterward—if you want to.

WEDLOCK IN THE EAST.—Youths in the east are thus exhorted by one of the eastern journals to marry.

A good wife is the best, most faithful companion you can possibly have by your side while performing the journey of life. A dog isn't a touch to her. She can smooth your linen and your cares for you; mend your trowsers and change your manners; sweeten your moments, as well as your tea and coffee; fix the, perhaps, your shirt bosom, but not your temper; and, instead of sowing the seeds of sorrow in your path, she will sew buttons on your shirt, and plant happiness, instead of harrow teeth, in your bosom. Yes! and if you are too confoundedly lazy, or too proud, to do such work yourself, she will carry swill to the hogs, chop wood, and dig potatoes for dinner. Her love for her husband is such that she will do any thing to please him—except to receive company in her every-day clothes. Get married, I repeat, you must. Concentrate your affections upon one object, and don't distribute them crumb by crumb, among a host of Susans, Matilds, Elizas, Betseys, Peggies, Dorothies, all-owing each scarcely enough to nibble at. Get married, I repeat, you must. Get married, and have some one to cheer you up, as you journey through this vale of tears.

THE VESPER GAS OR AIR LIGHT,

The Cheapest, most Brilliant, and most Convenient Artificial Light in the World!

THE Vesper Gas Light has won for itself a reputation for eleganee, economy, safety, and simplicity far beyond any other artificial light. The Vesper Gas flame and fixtures precisely resemble in form those of coal gas; but in brilliancy and purity of light, it possesses a decided advantage over even Louisville coal gas. It requires no chimney; there is no need of daily trimming of wick; and the construction of the fixture is so simple that it is not liable to get out of order, and a child can manage it readily. The gas burned in the Vesper fixtures is generated from pure coal oil, without any admixture of alcohol or other foreign ingredient. It is ent rely free from oder while burning, as, by a simple contrivance, the vapor of the oil is mixed with the atmosphere, producing perfect combustion and a most intense light. The light has been pronounced by those who have had it in constant use for months, as most pleasant to the eye while reading or sewing, there being no flicker or unsteadiness in the flame. The Vesper Gas Light is portable, and can be used in town or country—in fact, wherever artificial light is required. The fixtures themselves are adapted in styles to suit all tastes, from the plain single-light burner to the most costly chandelier. Each chandelier is perfect in itself; there is no outlay to be made for service pipes. The gas is generated in the burner, and all fixtures, from the cheap single-light burner to the expensive chandelier, are miniature gas-works in themselves. They are sold at prices which do not exceed the cost of the ordinary gas fixtures of similar style and ornamentation. A price list will be sent to any address on application.

MERCHANTS

visiting Louisville should not fail to procure the Vesper Gas Fixtures for their stores.

Churches, Hotels, Public Halls, and Private Residences

throughout the State can now be fitted up with these elegant and convenient chandeliers, and other beautiful gas fixtures, which add so much to the appearance of such places and to the comfort of the home circle, and which heretofore could be used only in those favored districts embraced within the coal-gas limits of large cities.

The limited space of an advertisement precludes the insertion here of the numerous testimonials of approval we have received from all quarters. Suffice it to say, scientific men and others who have examined and thoroughly tested the merits of the Vesper Gas Light, pronounce it the best and cheapest artificial light now known.

☞ The proprietor respectfully requests responsible merchants in every town and county in the State to correspond with him, believing they will find it to their interest to aid him in introducing this unequaled light to their customers.

Vesper Fixtures and Coal Oil prepared expressly for his burner kept constantly on hand, and for sale wholesale and retail. WM. H. SETTLE.

Take Notice.

ON the 11th day of this month there was committed to the Jail of Adair count , Kentucky, a RUNAWAY NEGRO that had been apprehended in said county. Said negro is of the following description, to-wit: about 40 years old; weighs 191 pounds; 5 feet 7 inches high; very black; has a small notch or nitch in his right nostril; has a good set of teeth; had on, when taken up, an old brown cassimere coat, blue corded pants, and wool hat; wears a long beard. Said Negro says he ran off from Madison county, Mississippi, some six months since. That he belongs to a Mr. Peter Evans, of Madison county, Miss; that his name is CÆSAR; that he once belonged to Quishenberry's heirs, of Clarke county, Kentucky. Unless said slave is claimed within six months, he will be sold, as provided by the laws of this State.

J. H. GARDNER'S
ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL FEMALE INSTITUTE,
BRIDGEPORT, KY.

THE semi-yearly sessions of this Institute commence on the first Monday in February, and the first Monday in September, each year. The course of study embraces the Primary, Academical, and Collegiate Departments, with the Modern Languages. The mode of instruction is thorough and scientific. To raise the standard of Female Education is the great aim of the Teachers, and to aid them in this, a "Visiting and Examining Committee" of three will visit the school quarterly, and by their rigid examination will prove, it is hoped, valuable auxiliaries to the Teachers in exciting a spirit of energy and application. The course of instruction embraces four departments, and diplomas will be granted those who complete thoroughly and successfully a full course of study. The location is in the pleasant village of Bridgeport, four miles from Frankfort and forty-eight from Louisville, which is unsurpassed for its salubrity, and the morality and refinement of its inhabitants make it a desirable place for the education of girls. It is convenient of access by the Louisville, Frankfort, and Lexington railroad, and by daily stages and omnibuses from Frankfort, Shelbyville, and Louisville. The young ladies board in the family of the Principal, and are treated with parental care and kindness, enjoying at the same time all the advantages of a refined social intercourse. The session will continue twenty weeks; but pupils are received at any time and charged accordingly. No deduction made for absence or withdrawal save in cases of protracted illness. All bills to be paid strictly and invariably in advance.

WORMS! WORMS! WORMS!

THE season is at hand when those scourges of childhood begin to become both troublesome and dangerous. DR. JOHN BULL'S VEGETABLE WORM DESTROYER is a remedy alike pleasant and effectual for the evil. There is not the least difficulty in getting children to take the medicine. It is prepared in the form of Candy Drops, and will be eaten with avidity by children of all ages. It destroys and expels worms more effectually than any remedy now in use, while at the same time it will in no way affect injuriously the health of the child.

Sold wholesale and retail by Dr. BULL, at his Depot on Fifth street, north of Main, and by Druggists generally throughout the country.

Sold by W. H. Averill, Agent for Frankfort and vicinity.

Spring Bed for Sale in Frankfort.

GOULDS PATENT. This is an entirely new application of spiral springs to beds, making decidedly the most comfortable, neat, and cheap spring bed ever offered for sale, adjusted to every description of bedstead. We believe it entirely useless to go into detail relative to the advantages of this bed, having entire confidence in its durability and adaptation to the wants of the people. We offer to attach it to any bedstead, submit it to trial, to the satisfaction of any person, at the extraordinary low price of $4 50, and if, after trial, it proves unsatisfactory, take it away, refund the money, and replace old bottom as we found it.

SANFORD'S
LIVER INVIGORATOR.

NEVER DEBILITATES.

IT is compounded entirely from Gums, and has become an established fact, a standard medicine known and approved by all that have used it, and is now resorted to with confidence in all the diseases for which it is recommended.

It has cured thousands within the last two years, who had given up all hopes of relief, as the numerous unsolicited certificates in my possession show.

The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels.

Let the dictates of your own judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR, and it will cure Liver Complaints, Bilious Attacks, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Dropsy, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Cholic, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Flatulence, Jaundice, Female Weaknesses, and may be used successfully as an Ordinary Family Medicine. It will cure SICK HEADACHE, (as thousands can testify,) in twenty minutes, if two or three teaspoonfuls are taken at commencement of attack.

All who use it are giving their testimony in its favor.

MIX WATER IN THE MOUTH WITH THE INVIGORATOR, AND SWALLOW BOTH TOGETHER.

Price One Dollar per Bottle.

—ALSO,—

SANFORD'S
FAMILY
CATHARTIC PILLS,

COMPOUNDED FROM

Pure Vegetable Extracts, and put up in GLASS CASES, Air Tight, and will keep in any Climate.

The FAMILY CATHARTIC PILL is a gentle but active Cathartic, which the proprietor has used in his practice more than twenty years.

The constantly increasing demand from those who have long used the PILLS, and the satisfaction which all express in regard to their use, has induced me to place them within the reach of all.

The Profession well know that different Cathartics act on different portions of the bowels.

The FAMILY CATHARTIC PILL has, with due reference to this well established fact, been compounded from a variety of the purest Vegetable Extracts, which act alike on every part of the alimentary canal, and are good and safe in all cases where a Cathartic is needed, such as Derangements of the Stomach, Sleepiness, Pains in the Back and Loins, Costiveness, Pain and Soreness over the whole body, from sudden cold, which frequently, if neglected, end in a long course of Fever, Loss of Appetite, a creeping sensation of cold over the body, Restlessness, Headache, or weight in the head, all Inflammatory Diseases, Worms in Children or Adults, Rheumatism, a great purifier of the Blood and many diseases to which flesh is heir, too numerous to mention in this advertisement. DOSE, 1 to 3.

PRICE 3 DIMES.

The LIVER INVIGORATOR AND FAMILY CATHARTIC PILLS are retailed by druggists generally, and sold wholesale by the Trade in all the large towns.

THE ONLY DISCOVERY

Worthy of any confidence for

RESTORING

THE BALD AND GRAY.

MANY, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to its resistless sway. Read the following.

Bath, Maine, April 18th, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.: Gents.—The letter I wrote you in 1856, concerning your valuable Hair Restorative, and which you have published in this vicinity and elsewhere, has given rise to numerous inquiries touching the facts in the case. The inquiries are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication; second, is it true of all therein contained; third, does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for forty years past, more soft, thrifty and better colored; the same is true of my whiskers, and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablutions of the face, when if care were used by wiping the face in close connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some months, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise as I am now 61 years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my face; and to prove this fact, I send you a lock of my hair taken off the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful; I gave it to my friends, and thereby induced them to try it. many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many, I fear, without authority from you. A pure article will insure success, and I believe where good effects do not follow, the failure is caused by the impure article, which curses the inventor of the good. I deem it my duty as heretofore, to keep you apprised of the continued effect upon my hair, as I assure all who inquire of me of my unbiased opinion of its valuable results. I remain, dear sir, yours,

A. C. RAYMOND.

Aaron's Run, Ky., Nov. 30, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world, the wonderful, as well as the unexpected result I have experienced from using ONE bottle of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restoratives extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to announce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to ALL who may feel the necessity of it.

Respectfull, yours,

Rev. S. ALLEN BROCK.

P. S.—This testimonial of my approbation for your valuable medicine (as you are aware of) is unsolicited; but if you think it worthy a place among the rest, insert if you wish; if not, destroy and say nothing. Yours, &c., Rev. S. A. B.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle. O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market st., St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Agents for Sanford's Liver Invigorator, Spaulding's Prepared Glue, Dr. Brouson's Blood Food and Infantile Cordial.

Sold by W. H. AVERILL and all druggists in Frankfort and Kentucky.
